Beyond the original solutions of the neighbors, there are feelings of coexistence and solidarity that remind us of how we all always have the key to helping someone who needs it.

Mr. Umbrellas can not scratch his back because he has umbrellas instead of hands! But he is lucky because his neighbor from 1st floor, Mrs. Salmmin, has one thousand hands and can help him scratching. But... how does Mrs Salmmin cut her nails when she needs to? Well, she calls Rosseti sisters, from 2nd floor, who have no legs but scissors!

A series of strambotic characters suddenly appear in the building of WhoKnows street. Each one of the neighbours that live in it, hides a terrible or hilarious problem and there is always a friendly neighbor willing to give him a hand.

Discover how fascinating life is through science.

Alicia is a very curious girl. She likes to understand everything, for example: How do we know if a thing is alive or not? How does a cell work? What does it keep inside?

Wouldn't you like to accompany Alicia and her father inside the human body? Let yourself be fascinated by the world of cells, DNA and mitochondria. Nothing seems complicated if you go hand in hand with a good guide.

Bel Olid is an excellent and successful writer with tonnes of imagination and easiness to connect with the youngest ones. Naida Mazzenga is an imaginative and contemporanean illustrator.

“Once upon a time there was a very ferocious bad wolf...
-Hey, wait a minute, wait a minute.”

And so begins this book... Two girls chatting and challenging the myth of the Bad Wolf, put off by folklore and fairy tales.

There are many animals that have a bad name. And the purpose of Bel Olid is to clear their reputation with facts and figures. Throughout the conversation, the reader will be able to lift the flaps and find out the truth behind wolves, sharks, spiders, horses and crocodiles.

Accompanied by the amazing illustrations of Naida Mazzenga, children realize to which extent we have a misleading image and why they are so important to us and to their habitats.

Don't be afraid of lifting the flaps! They are not as bad as they say.

«I know a girl who once won a sound. And She got it all alone. A brave and stubborn girl. And that sound was twice a giant. Since childhood, the girl saw that the children around her had something that she was missing. She kept watching them as they pushed cars, ferried planes, sank ships. And she did not understand what was wrong.»

This story is the conquest of an extraordinary success: the climb of a mountain that seemed impossible to achieve: Girl 1 - Giant 0. But wait a moment: this story...What is missing? If you look inside, you will definitely get it... but who knows? Maybe you no longer need it.

Nica (the little girl) and Nano (the black cat), seem made for each other. Nobody understands as well as the girl the whims of this wild black cat. They are, in fact, two free and irreducible animals, which roll with a talent that human beings envy. But (there must always be one but), Nica is growing and Nano seems to get wilder and wilder.

M. Aurèlia Capmany is one of the classic women Catalan writers from the 70's. She as many of her time were significantly important for the Catalan feminism and female revolution. Now, Natalia Zaratiegui wants to pay tribute to this excellent woman with this extraordinary illustrated book.

Our protagonist is a female trucker. According to her, she lives, eats and dresses with the standards expected of a truck driver: short hair, plaid shirt and jeans. One day, in a roadside bar, she meets a girl with long hair, a spotted dress and skates on her feet. Surprisingly enough that girl on skates is also a trucker and she doesn't live, eats or dresses as the standards... how can that be?

Bel Olid is writer, translator, university professor and feminist to the bone. She presided the Conseil Européen des Associations de Traducteurs Littéraires (CEATL) and since March 2015 she is the president of the association of Catalan writers. She writes both for adult in fiction and non fiction, and for children.

You've never read a pirate saga quite like this one !

IF YOU'VE EVER DREAMT OF DISCOVERING THAT YOUR FATHER IS A GENUINE PIRATE, IF YOU BELIEVE IN MERMAIDS, HIDDEN TREASURES AND EVEN MAGICAL VIOLINS, THEN...

JAN PLATA IS YOUR HERO AND THIS IS THE PERFECT SAGA FOR YOU.

IN THE FOLLOWING 6 TITLES, WE WILL READ THE ADVENTURES OF A NORMAL BOY WHO LIVES TWO OPPOSITE WORLDS: HIS MOTHER'S NORMALITY AND HIS FATHER'S PIRACY.

HOW DIFFICULT TO CHOOSE!

Josep Lluís Badal

(Barcelona 1966). Writer and teacher. In his literary work he combines children's literature with poetry, adult narrative and essay. He is known for his incredibly imagination and how his fantastic world connects with kids. An imagination extraordinarily well captured by Jordi Lafebre and his amazing drawings.

Jan Silver. The Pirates' Call

Jan Plata is a dreamy, nautical book-eating boy who lives in a shack on the beach with his mother. He knows nothing about his father, and he gets no answers to his questions. There is a golden bell in the house that has been forbidden to ring. One day, Jan breaks this rule and his life changes forever. He will start an unexpected magical adventure with his father.

The Serapion Broadsword

Jan is alone and lost in the midst of the vastness of the sea. His all alone on a boat and rounded by sharks. He has no food or water left. He has escape from "The Star of the Sea", his fathers ship. In short: he has fled from his ship and he is now in an ocean of troubles...

Death and Violet

Jan is back at school but he feels he is wasting his time. He knows things are happening at the sea and sirens have realized that something is not going well on the abissal waters. The sea calls again to Jan Plata.

The Lords of the Sea

Jan must repeat the school year. His absence in class has made him neglected the study. And real life is like this: if you don't study, you fail. In real life there are no pirates, no powerful swords, no sea monsters, no sirens that take your heart away, no mechanical whales ... life, dear Jan Plata, is something else!

Unicorn

Jan continues his adventures aboard his father's ship and the situation is dangerous. Jan will have to leave the security of the sea, the boat and his friends to start a difficult return path. And if he comes out alive, he knows that it will not be the same as before, but the time for sacrifices has come.

The End of the World

The young Jan Plata has lived so much in such a short time that he has the feeling that life is a handful of sand that crumbles between his fingers. The end is near. But the life he has lived, the friends he has made, the family he has recovered and the love he has met have all been worth it. Now he has to see what the future holds for him.

“I will create a submarine, a fish boat that will be able to go underwater and discover new places and release us forever from the servitude of the surface. Narcís Monturiol on 1855

A story that will delight fans of characters such as Tintin, Adèle Blanc-Sec or Indiana Jones.”

July 1855. Narcís Monturiol, the future creator of the Ictineo submarine, has just arrived at the village of Cadaqués and finds a very crisp atmosphere: some fishermen have disappeared without leaving a trace. The people of the town blame Sabana, whom they accuse of practicing witchcraft. Monturiol will gather a small team: Congre, a simple and forced fisherman; Diri, the son of one of the disappeared; and Sabana, who wants to prove her innocence.

Meanwhile, a secret guerrilla of the British army, reinforced by the mental powers of a Hindu faquir, illegally extracts Nautilium, a prodigious mineral that by applying it to military and weapons uses, may subjugate the rest of the nations of the planet.

The Duo

Roig & Benages work pretty well together. They have already published few books together for adults and this is the first one for younger readers. All their works have a hint of science fiction or a magic touch. Hilarious and ironic sense of humour, their stories are enjoyable and do not have other intention but amuse the reader.

Isolde, Iso for her friends, likes to read a lot and wants to study aeronautics although there's still a long way before she gets into the university. She and her family have recently moved from the Eixample neighborhood to Barceloneta and the first friend she has made is Santi, the bookseller whom she visits every friday after school. The other friend will be Watson, a boy also a bit peculiar. Together they will try to return some old photographs that Isolde found in an old book of Santi's in an envelope where someone had written: "To Carmeta". The research for this Carmeta will take Iso and Watson to discover some secrets of the neighborhood, enter to occupied houses and discover what's in the Jacqueline's closet!

Gemma Lienas | Gemma is a writer and Catalan activist. She has written more than ninety books of fiction and non fiction. “The author also criticizes the selfishness in today's society: we do not listen to other people's dramas because we are lazy.

Humanity has frozen as much as the reader's blood when it reaches the unexpected end of this magnificent book.” (ANNA CARRERAS, NÚVOL)

Abel needs some time to think. He can not continue his studies after “what happened” and he does not know what exactly he should do. Journalism studies? Continue with the theater and the cinema? Since he is broke, he accpets to babysit Mark, the son of Aurora Recasens. Aurora warns Marc that her son is special, different from other children: hypersensitive and reflective for his age. Abel immediately connects with Marco, but when the kid begins to tell memories of living scenes that it is impossible for him to have lived, he begins to feel uneasy. Who is Mark, really?

Macip & Garzón

Connoisseurs of the codes of science fiction and fantasy, the tandem Macip & Garzón know that there are three crucial ingredients:

- 1) raise a captivating imaginary world.
- 2) generate a sprawling and potentially devastating threat.
- 3) insert within points 1 and 2 some heroes who take a long time to know where they have gone and who transform the outer action in to inner growth. All of this, works like a precision clock in this crossover novel.

Unexplained phenomena that make you think of the Apocalypse, popular uprisings, neo-anarchist groups, overwhelming science, mythological adventures and the universe in danger. Hardly more can be given.
